

Title PV and Mini-Split Installer
Industry Renewable Energy
Location Brattleboro, VT
Summary Looking for an experienced solar PV and mini-split installer for full time work immediately

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assist lead installer with quality solar PV and mini-split installations in the following areas:
 - o Solar PV – Roof penetrations and attachments, groundwork preparation, racking, optimizer assembly, combiner box assembly, grounding, homeruns, panel attachments, inverter racking, and other related tasks
 - o Mini-Splits – Indoor unit mounting, outdoor unit bases, outdoor racking and compressor units, line sets with line hide cover sets, copper line flaring, line insulation, branch boxes
- Read plans, make calculations, layout components by measurements, snap and pull lines
- Assist with overall crew and job site safety in areas of staging materials and tools, loading trucks, general support, site preparation, set-up and clean-up

General Qualifications:

- At least one year of solar and mini-split installation desirable though not required, residential and/or commercial
- Construction experience required; general construction, carpentry, electrical, roofing, etc.
- Physical strength, stamina no fear of heights:
 - o Ability to work in various positions including stooping, standing, bending, sitting, kneeling and squatting for extended periods
 - o Ability to easily lift 60 pound solar panels
 - o Not afraid of heights, ladders or scaffolding
- Strong attention to detail
- Reliable transportation
- Ability to pass background check
- Professional appearance
- Willingness to take certification courses paid for by employer for NABCEP PV and EPA Refrigerant Certifications

Where to Apply:

Send a resume to kwilson@isasolar.com